

Alieu Fuad Nyei Profile

Alieu Fuad Nyei is an economist and public finance management specialist with over ten (10) years of experience in macroeconomic management, public finance, public budgeting and public sector reforms. Prior to joining LERC, Mr. Nyei served as Assistant Minister for Expenditures at Liberia's Ministry of Finance and Development Planning (MFDP) where he led fiscal management reforms such as development and implementation of fiscal rules, travel policies and perdiems reform, cash management reforms, etc.

Mr. Nyei holds a Master of Science degree in International Finance and Economic Development (IFED) from the University of Reading, UK and is a Certified Financial Modelling and Valuation Analyst (FMVA) from the Corporate Finance Institute. He has attended executive education programs in organizational leadership, Utility Regulation and Strategy, public financial management and macroeconomic management at the Harvard Kennedy School, London School of Economics, University of Florida, International Monetary Fund (IMF) institute, among others.